PUBLIC NOTICE

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AND CALL FOR COMMENTS ON THE AMENDMENT OF SECTIONS 21 & 22 OF THE STATE CORPORATIONS ACT, CAP 446

The State Corporations Appeal Tribunal is a statutory body established under section 22 of the State Corporations Act, Cap 446 to hear and determine appeals from persons aggrieved by decisions of the Inspector General (Corporations), on surcharges.

The Tribunal is proposing the review of Section 21 of the State Corporations Act for purposes of expanding its mandate to include hearing and determining disputes between and amongst state corporations in line with the directive issued by the Chief of Staff and Head of Public Service on the 6th of February 2023 requiring all Government agencies to withdraw legal disputes filed in courts with a view of ensuring that disputes are resolved within the Executive arm of Government.

A copy of the amendment bill is available on our website at <https://scat.go.ke/legal-documents>

In accordance with Article 10 (2) of the Constitution of Kenya that enshrines public participation as national value, the Tribunal through this notice, hereby invites members of public and stakeholders to provide comments, proposals, recommendations and feedback on the amendments through a written memoranda in the following format: -
